LEND ME YOUR EARS S P Feates
A woman is attacked in her own apartment by a man bizarrely dressed in black lycra. The attacker it seems has a fetish for diamond earrings, he places them in his victim’s ears before he cuts them off and takes them. The sadist attacks two further women, the only link to the crimes appears to be the famous diamond quarter known as Hatton Garden in London.
Detective Inspector Mike Jackson and Detective Sergeant John Harris are desperate to catch the person responsible before they strike again. The investigation tests even the experienced D I Jackson, an old school copper, who thought he had seen everything.
There are twists and turns throughout when the lover of one of the victims, who happens to be a journalist, starts her own investigation. It is a race against time to see who tracks down the attacker and brings their own form of retribution. One side driven by justice the other by revenge.
