Lion of Midnight Aliyah Burke
A man blessed—or cursed—by the gods with immortality until he finds true love, finds his match in a woman more unique than he'd imagined; she can endure his past, uphold his present, and sustain his future. Nikolas Andreyevich is searching for his one true love. He spots her in a Russian bakery and knows immediately she is the one for him. All he has to do is convince her to love him. Sounds simple, right? Unfortunately the gods don't play fair, especially the one who wants Nik for his own personal use, and Cleopatra Laurens is not a woman to be swayed or controlled, not anymore. Over time she begins to see what kind of a man Nik truly is but will it all be for naught? Cleo offers the greatest thing she has in order to save this man who's taught her to love again. Will Nik get to keep the woman he's survived nearly a century to find?
