Shot Through The Heart (Supernature Book 1) Edwin James
“An enjoyable tale that I found difficult to put down. The lead character, Mark Campbell, is well developed and believably flawed while the story line is suitably spooky.”
- 4/5, Scottish Field, February 2014 issue

Mark Campbell, historian and author, is desperate to finish his new book on the infamous Highland Clearances when his researcher mysteriously disappears. Abandoning his depressed wife and new baby, Mark rushes to a remote Scottish village to investigate.

But when he gets there, all is not what it seems. Who is the attractive landowner, Lady Elizabeth Ruthven, and why is she housebound on a remote loch island? Why are wild dogs hunting him? And what really happened to the researcher?

Mark's investigation is soon overwhelmed by a series of unnerving events, plunging him into a very real nightmare. Can he make it back home to his family in one piece?

SHOT THROUGH THE HEART is a gothic mystery set in the Scottish Highlands, weaving the supernatural with history, which will grip you right through to its brutal conclusion.
