The Awakening (The Awakening Series) (Volume 1) Kenneth Chisholm
Mark and his friends were having a normal day until they survived a sudden assassination attempt. Surviving by what seemed to be pure luck somehow activated special powers in them called awakenings. As they search for answers to their abilities they realize that the more information they find out about their situation the more danger they seemed to be in. This group struggles to stay out of the eyes of any and every one all the while they are dealing with their own personal issues as they try to keep their awakenings a secret. With many different personalities, theories, and outlooks on their situation it is it possible for the group to stay safe and keep their secrets?
