No one would approve of their relationship. What they had done was enough to create a scandal these days. They had to leave.

It was her parents' 15th anniversary, and she was to see her stepbrother again during the family reunion. Her brother had always been the most irritating, most frustrating person Sara had ever met, but also the most handsome. She was never really close to her stepbrother Elliot, especially since he was always away on another business venture. However, he was very close to her. Little did she know he's been by her side the entire time, giving her as much of his time and love as he possibly could. He could not lose her.
