Our Impassioned Calling: Finding God's Will For His Church Mark T Davies
As the Christian Church moves further into the twenty-first Century, God longs for people who will pray from their hearts, "Lord, do what you want to do!"

How Jesus calls us and how the Holy Spirit helps us; how we can combine a knowledge of history with readiness for God’s working today; how we may express the Christian message to others with sensitivity but also with assurance - these themes contribute to a single central appeal. Engage with God himself!

Mark T. Davies is a Methodist Minister who has worked in churches in various parts of England. He describes the experiences both in England and elsewhere which led him to write this heartfelt book.
