Black Coffee: Poems to Get African American Women through the Day Thomalyn A. Epps
Black Coffee is a two part series collection of poems for African American women. The poetry was inspired by everyday situations to which black women can relate. There are words of encouragement to help the reader through tough times, words of wisdom, poems to make you think, and poems to make you laugh. Some poems you may want to read to your companion, while some will keep your company when you are all alone. Inspirational and uplifting, Part One of the series covers a range of subjects including self-identity, inner-strength, beauty, love and faith. Black Coffee will help pick you up on a bad day and keep you smiling on a good day.
