Thanks to Colt, she's got a great job, her friend hasn't been fired, and her old nemesis, Mr Bennett, is sat at home eating pizza and drinking rum. And then, of course, there's the sex, which is seismic, varied, and truly epic.

But sometimes, epic isn't enough, and soon Daisy begins falling into the age old trap – she begins to develop real feelings for the young billionaire.

But he's still got her under his thumb, and aside from small moments of intimacy, she has no idea how he truly feels about her. And with all this turmoil coursing through Daisy's brain, Chloe comes to her with a solution – to find another man, and forget about Colt forever.

And so, they go out, and redeem their old partnership, but soon Daisy's night takes a turn for the worst, and one she doesn't expect.

But, in the end, good things can sprout from the bad, and soon Daisy and Colt will discover just how they truly feel about each other...
