A Forgiveness Bible Study

What do we do when a loved one, boss, co-worker, friend, or enemy seem determined to bring us down through an attack? How do we handle their personal, public, deep, unjust, unfair, and unfounded attack? Take it one step further. How do we deal with meaningless acts of destruction and death, say in something similar to the Twin Towers incident or a school shooting, especially when the offender shows no remorse?

In short, how do we move past the emotional pain to a place of forgiveness?

This forgiveness Bible study examines relevant scriptures for the purpose of building a Biblical understanding of:
• what forgiveness is and what it isn't
• God's role in the process of forgiveness
• what Jesus accomplished at the cross for each of us
• our mandate to forgive as we've been forgiven
• what gets in the way of forgiving others
• how to truly forgive the unforgivable

Written to compliment the spiritual theme of forgiveness in A BRIDGE UNBROKEN, the fifth Miller's Creek novel.

OTHER MILLER'S CREEK NOVELS:
Texas Roads (spiritual theme: finding true home)
A Path Less Traveled (spiritual theme: regaining faith)
The Way of Grace (spiritual theme: grace and mercy)
Pilgrimage of Promise (spiritual theme: God's faithfulness)
