Taken by the Inquisition Alex Carlsbad
In the early days of the Holy Roman Inquisition, its agents still had a lot to learn about the secrets of the female body, what made a woman writhe in passion, what made her gasp in anguish. With the devotion of true zealots, they worked hard to fill these gaps in their knowledge. Often, they would ask for the help of willing women to be their test subjects.

Katie is one such woman. The politics of her father land her in the clutches of the dedicated agents of the Inquisition. When they offer her freedom, in return for some private tutelage, humiliated and ashamed, her choice is all too easy to make.
