Venus and Vicious Timothy Sessoms
Natasha and Victoria are two girls living in the Bronx, NY. Their upbringings are worlds apart---through events out of their own control they forge a sisterly bond that takes them from the mean streets of New York City and catapults them into the high stakes game of murder for hire. Masters of the game; their unique talents are highly sought after. They try to balance their personal lives with their newly found profession, but as the plot thickens their pasts come back to haunt them forcing them to make decisions that have grave implications for those closest to them. If you like suspense, action, sex, and an incredible back story, this book is for you! It will have you hooked by the end of the first chapter.
