Big Book of Playground Rhymes and Chants

Big Book of Playground Rhymes and Chants
Playground activities can contribute to both physical and academic development. Rhythm aids coordination and athletic performance. Rhythm and rhyme are key elements of language. And, perhaps best of all, they're fun! Here are 32 big (11" x 17") charts with rhythm activities that develop language and motor skills: jumping rope, ball bouncing, and hand-clapping. Rhymes can include counting, saying the alphabet, and listing information. The rope rhymes can be done by individuals, in pairs, or with small groups. All pages are reproducible and ready to display. Subjects include: teddy bear, down by the river, call a friend, little Dutch girl, sheep in the meadow, and more. Plenty of fun illustrations highlight the presentation. Information on curriculum areas served and bookholder template provided.
