Down Argentina Way Virginia Sidley
For some, the only answer is distance. Tommy Lawrence, after struggling against the fists of an aggressive father, seeks a life less ordinary in the rugged landscape of South America. Working on an Argentinian farm helps to mend his spirit, but the arrival of the reckless and beautiful Catriona will have unseen repercussions which force Tommy back to a life in England. There he meets golden-haired Emma and life becomes settled. But tragedy strikes and Tommy must, once again, find a way forward in dark times. Will he finally find love in an unexpected place and possibly return to the wilds of Argentina? In her romantic novel, Down Argentina Way, Virginia Sidley has created a story and characters who are deeply affecting. With twists, turns and surprises to the very end, the book provides true entertainment and the perfect escape.
