Dream Decoder: Reveal Your Unconscious Desires Fiona Flaxman, Fiona Zucker
We dream that we're flying in an airplane. Does it mean we yearn for a vacation? Maybe, but there are often deeper meanings, too. Since the beginning of time, men and women have wondered about their dreams, and have interpreted them in many different ways. This beautifully illustrated volume brings together the origins, the history, and the psychological traditions relating to dream interpretation in an easy-to-read format. Topics explored include emotional and physiological reasons why we all need to dream, dreams and their interpretations throughout history, modern interpretation of dreams, including the theories of psychologists Sigmund Freud and Karl Jung. A major section of this book presents a directory of dream symbols and their possible meanings. Images interpreted include colors, numbers, pregnancy, death, skeletons, drowning, rivers, storms, parents, familiar places, dogs, cats, birds, fish, journeys by automobile, plane, or train, chasing or being chased, nakedness, sex, bathing, and many, many others. This handsome book features more than 150 full-color illustrations.
