Queen Alexandra. Battiscombe Georgina
This is a good biography of Queen Alexandra from Great Britain, former princess of Denmark and the mother of the king that faced the WWI. It is very interesting, with an agreeable style and with many curious facts about the personality of Alexandra. The author doesn't give much information about the famous Duke of Clarence, Alexandra troubled son . The book is not so good as the biography of the queen's sister, the tsaritsa of Russia, Marie Feodorovna by Corinne Hall, but I recommend it.(Amazon customer)
