The Sound of Acquiescence (The Gift of Submission) (Volume 1) Ms Candace Michelle
Modern romance novels come with a variety of themes to captivate the hearts and minds of their readers, trap them between the pages of sizzling romance or intriguing crime puzzles that need solving. Either way modern day romance novels are both mesmerizing and thoroughly interesting. This is what Candace Michelle writer of The Sound of Acquiescence hopes to bring forth in her readers. “I can only swallow and shake my head yes. He reached for my hand and pulled me into him. At that moment, I inhaled and allowed myself to drown into the power of his arms. He kissed me with the hunger of a starving lion. He devoured me! My legs became feeble.” Sultry, delightful and robust are just few words that describe the excerpt from this passion driven, lip-smacking, mouthwatering book. The Sound of Acquiescence was not just written for lovers, but for those who love reading and have been waiting on a change in the way romance has been described in so many novels over the years. This one comes straight from the kitchen brewing sexy characters, luscious, exotic scenes and succulent, promising endings. This novel is not just another romance book but a narration filled with intense, aromatic and appealing details, that speak to the way a man responds to a woman and a woman responds to a man. It describes the deep feelings of the main characters relationship with each other and how this relationship is affected by their other lives. Candace Michelle has not only brought romance and intrigue but has been able to capture the chemistry between the main characters Sequoia Arias and Slade Bayou in a way that set the pages of the novel on fire and burns the eatable chronicle deep inside the mind of readers. Do not miss a copy of this authentic, titillating tale that is guaranteed to capture hearts and minds for a second and third read as the audience just will not be able to resist exploring the enticing story behind the two main characters over and over again. “Slade locked onto my neck and I ceased breathing. He rotated from hard to soft sucks of my neck as if he was playing an invisible game of tic-tac-toe with my pulse.” Let go and let The Sound of Acquiescence take the mind to places of relaxation with some hot, raw, biting romance that will raise the heart beat just a fraction and create wave of ideas that can be used in relationships outside the novel. Excerpt: My legs began to shake, and I went stiff. Slade latched on to my breast and an orgasm shot out of me like a bottle rocket. I was stunned by the magnitude of it. Slade didn’t stop; he sped up his pace, and I felt another one coming. Then he kissed me. It was as if they had let down the levees in New Orleans; there was a flood. He kissed me with a passion that was like gasoline thrown on a brush fire. He swallowed my cries and withdrew his fingers from Juicy. He placed his fingers in his mouth and sucked my flavor off of them; then he kissed me again. He spread my legs and slowly found his way to the junction of my thighs. In my limited experience of men, this had been done only once before. I didn’t enjoy it as much, because it felt as if he were nibbling on cookies. At any rate, Slade blew on my pusci, and I gulped in air. It was as if he had turned into a sun bear in search of honey; he devoured my pusci. At first slow licks, short, quick licks. Then he flattened his tongue and, as an artist with a weasel-hair paintbrush, he created a masterpiece of orgasmic nature. I didn’t have the air to scream. However, I let out a low howl of pleasure, baying to the moon and to Slade at the same time. My body twitched and my toes started curling, making popping noises. In that moment, an old blues song came to me, and I began to hum in my head the Howling Wolf song, “Riding in the Moonlight.” He grabbed me and laid me in the curve of his arm with the authority of the President of the United States."
