Philosophy of Sex: Contemporary Readings Alan Soble
This is a time of anarchy both in sexual behaviour and in the theory and ideology of sexuality, a time when a host of disparate and equally loud religions, social prophets and schools compete for the power to tell people what is right and wrong in their sexual lives and thoughts. "The Philosophy of Sex", now in its 2nd edition, brings together the most important philosophical writings in the past 10 years to offer an informed, critical and imaginative investigation of the fundamental concepts surrounding human sexuality.
