How To Love Your Spouse Unconditionally Over The Next Sixty Days

Loving your wife more is going to be easy when you follow this 60 day plan. The ideas presented in this book will work for expressing love to your husband as well.

While it is no secret, the key to a long, happy and successful marriage is not love, but rather, compromise, especially on the part of the husband.

If you are a husband, you need to realize that as long as you put your wife's needs ahead of your own, you are already laying down the foundation for a marriage that will last for a lifetime. How so? This is because whatever you give to your wife, she will multiply it and return it back to you.

This means that if you give her all the love and patience in the world, being as understanding as you can, your wife will love you more than you ever could imagine.

Ideas From This Kindle Book On Loving Your Spouse

Day 1: Tell Her You Love Her
Actions may speak louder than words, but women love it when their partner expresses affection for them.

Something as simple as, "Good morning, beautiful. I love you." could easily cheer her up and brighten up her day. In fact, tell her this very exact phrase right from the moment you wake up and tell her again how much you love her before you go to sleep.

Even though this is a 60-day plan, I encourage you to do this every day.

If you need a reason to do that, then I recommend that you see a marriage counselor, because clearly you may have married the wrong person.

Day 2: Buy Her Flowers
As you come home from work, take the time to visit your local flower shop and buy your wife a bouquet of her favorite flowers.

Do this just because. If your wife is allergic to flowers, she will still appreciate it as she knows that it's the effort that counts.

From The Author On Expressing Unconditional Love To Your Spouse

One of the things I've learn in life is that I am responsible for my own happiness. Another valuable lesson I've learned is that I am not responsible for another person's happiness. With those things being said, I know it's an old cliché, but happiness really is an inside job. Please keep this in mind as you are expressing love to your spouse. It's important that your expressions of love are done in a selfless way.

You want to make sure that you are doing the things suggested in this book without any expectations of how your spouse is going to react to them. You must do these things because you have made a solid decision to express love to your spouse.

If your wife doesn't have the reaction that you thought she would, don't make a big deal out of it. Just find comfort and inner strength in the fact that you are sincerely expressing your love to her.

You have no control over how she will react to your expressions of love. You only have control over your own thoughts and actions. So, right now let go of any and all desired outcomes that you may have. Right now make a decision to love your spouse without conditions.

If you are expecting something in return for your love, you are only setting yourself up for a resentment. Remember this, expectations lead to resentments. If you are expecting a desired response, the chances are good that you will end up getting angry at your spouse when she doesn't act the way you wanted her to, thus ruining your expressions of love.

Just lavish your love on her and continue to lavish your love on her for the next sixty days. Do this with a smile on your face and in your heart. Avoid getting upset at her reactions at all costs.
