AFRICAN AMERICAN ROMANCE

Kara is paying her way through college by stripping. She loves what she does, and she's good at it. Very good. Although she isn't actively looking for a man, she knows that she's tired of weak ones. As a strong woman, she needs a powerful man.

Kara's roommate, the shy and innocent Susie, doesn't understand how Kara can disrobe in front of strangers. Her own reservations and inexperience leave her afraid to express herself sexually, until Kara makes an effort to help her get more comfortable in her skin. Once she realizes what she's been missing, she is nearly unstoppable.

If Kara was looking for a powerful man, she may have gotten more than she bargained for when BoneZone, an A-List rapper, spends the night at her club. She catches his eye, and he knows he wants her. He makes her an offer, and despite her misgivings and pride, she may not be able to refuse.
