The Rollercoaster of Life is Full of Ups and Downs Colleen Robinson
When Carianne Reimer lost her mom to a horrible car accident and her dad disappeared shortly there after, she was forced to live with her unloving and controlling, rich and abusive grandparents who were 'well known' in their home town. What they say was the rules. She had to live under strict rules and stay away from her best friends of whom she went to school with and hung out with for the first 13 years of her life. Changing her ways would not be easy. She refused to bow and cater to the boys' whims which made her guardians angry - they wanted to be back in the high society's good books after being black balled years before. Carianne, as years went on fought back and was able to be the kind of girl she wanted to be and not be forced into marriage so young. Time went on and her grandparents and the boy she was supposedly engaged to Simon Bartlett made her life miserable continuously. Carianne made it clear that she loved her long time best buddy David Moffatt and would be most likely marrying him, her grandparents weren't too thrilled. What happens years later when she finds out what really happened to her mom and why her father disappeared... Also who is the person who also shows up unannounced when Carianne's father finally returns....
