Kharmah Johnson’s family had it all. Money, power, and respect. But on her sixteenth birthday tragedy stuck and her family was killed causing her to move away from everything and everyone she loved. Now two years later, she is back in her hometown looking for clarity. Aside from the emotional drain this day has put on Kharmah, it is still her eighteenth birthday. To celebrate what’s left of her birthday, a big time drug dealer. who has had his eyes on Kharmah for a while, named Cassidy throws Kharmah a small birthday bash to try to win her over. But before Kharmah reaches the rooftop where her party will be held, she is approached by an old friend who reveals that things may not be as they seem. Secrets begin to unfold. Kharmah learns that the more she finds out about her past and the pasts of others around her, the closer she will come to finding the killer and getting revenge. But will it be too late?
