When the popular girl in school has problems with her football star boyfriend she makes friends with the nice girl next door and unexpected feelings develop.

Jill dates the captain of the football team and they are the most popular couple in school but they start fighting a lot and she finds out he's cheating on her. Jill is heartbroken and opens up to her neighbor, Vivian who is uncanningly nice and easy to talk to. Vivian is a nice girl who volunteers in the community and teaches piano, she's an artist and plays soccer. They start spending more and more time together and Jill invites her to come snowboarding with her friends. When they start to realize they have feelings for each other. Prom is coming up and everyone is asking Jill who she is going with. When Jill surprises the school by bringing a girl to prom, she inspires the student population to be more open minded but her parents tell her she's being foolish and try to make her feel guilty.

How will Jill handle her parents who are close minded and trying to get her to only date men?
