Mansour Lincoln Karim: A Memoir of Faith & Fulfillment Jess Karim
On November 20, 1950, a twenty year-old man arrived in America from Iran with only a few dollars in his pocket. He had the desire to live a fuller life- one in which he could continue his education and have the opportunity to invest in his own American dream. This is the story of Mansour's journey: what influenced him to come to Pierre South Dakota, how his faith in others and in God guided him, and how his generosity and joy have impacted those around him.
