Successful business? Check. Supportive friends? Check. Beautifully planned wedding? Check. Faithful fiancé? No check!

Minah Samuels just found out that her boyfriend and soon to be husband has been anything but faithful. The invites have gone out, the seating arrangements have been solidified and the dress is getting the final touches from the seamstress. What is she to do? Call the wedding off and move in with her best friend Malakai until the world makes sense again.

Malakai Daniels moved back to town just in time to be Minah’s knight in shining armor and help her through this devastating blow. She’s always been there for him, and in turn he’s always been there for her. A kiss during a weak moment awakens feelings and urges that neither can control and only one wants to act on. Malakai is all in for taking their relationship further but constant road blocks from Minah hinder the progress. Can she let go of her fears and allow him in?
