Many Are Called Few Are Chosen Diane V. Cogsdell
There have been many attempts to explain the book of Matthew 22:14 (many are called few are chosen), however, do we really know how the called are chosen or vise versa? This book showcases the author's rich relationship with God through profound dreams and visions. Readers will become aware of the many ways God communicates, and understand how chosen ones are selected. • Many will respect the author's desire to help others and become inspired by her passion. The author speaks with conviction, and many readers will respect her social awareness and unique insights on God's messages. • The Book has many useful elements, which showcase an attention to detail. Creative subheads guide the reader in the text and each chapter is given a title that reflects the contents of the section coherently. A strong conclusion summarizes the content very clearly. • Witty dialogue will keep the reader engaged in the content as they uncover the author's prophetic visions and vivid dreams. The author's descriptive language and superb memory enables the reader to connect with the content, as if they experienced the visions themselves.
