Caught in the Killer's Sight: Detective Novel (Chicago PD) (Volume 1) Miss B E Serenity
Raeanne is an experienced Chicago PD Homicide Detective, but she has never experience a case as suspenseful and edgy as this one. She's been a detective for the Chicago Police Department for 10 years, but she has been assigned the most thrilling, puzzling, and life threatening case ever in her career. The question is: Can Raeanne protect herself, when it's her own life/career being threatened as she finds herself to close to catching the killer? Raeanne will soon realize that trust and life come at a risky cost of their own; will she end up trusting the wrong person and put a target on her head? Join the detective to see if she pays for her risky choices in full or solves the case, while saving her life on her own. Go ahead and get yourself involved in this suspenseful and twisted case to help save Raeanne's life, while helping her solve the case. This will be the most bone chilling, heart stopping, and gripping novel; you'll never want to put it down. "I've worked on a lot of cases that would cause the toughest of men to shake in terror, but not me." Are you ready?
