Last Kiss Marilyn Smith Porter

"Georgie Core didn't know if he could live with himself. If only he had told Sharon his true feelings for her . . . when he had the chance. But she was his best friend's girl. Now all he had were his memories and dreams, but how could they ever be enough? And if he couldn't let go of the past, how could he hope to move forward with what was left of his life? Maybe the only way to keep from looking back, was to truly see what was right in front of him.

But will history repeat itself when, once again, his best friend steps into the picture? Or will Georgie finally fight for what he really wants?

Last Kiss is a love story inspired by a song of the same name . . . a song that always left the author wondering what might have happened on the road that night. Although the book is strictly a work of fiction, Marilyn Smith Porter's timeless tale of heartache, grief, betrayal, honor, friendship, and ultimately love, will touch your heart as deeply as the song you sing along with, every time you hear the words . . . Oh where, oh where, can my baby be . . .
