Creative Homeschooling Curriculum for Kindergarten to 2nd Grade - 100 Fun Lessons!

Designed for Beginners, for Dyslexic Learners, and Children who Struggle with Reading, Writing, Comprehension, Attentiveness, and Math.

This Fun-Schooling Journal is the perfect homeschooling curriculum for little girls who love learning together. You couldn't give your daughter a better start than this! The ideal age for the little one is 5 to 8, the ideal age for the older one is 9 to adult.

There are 100 activities designed to do together so the little one will learn by example. The book gently teaches a big sister, friend, grandma or parent how to be a good and gentle teacher who leads by being a good example.

The illustrations are sweet and inspiring, and will be treasured by girls of all ages.

The Journal Includes:

Reading Time

Nature Study

Listening Time

Design Time

Creative Storytelling (The older person will write down the story the two make up together.)

Mazes

Emotions and Feelings to Color and Talk about

Letter Coloring

Writing Words

Documentary & Audio Book Pages

Make Your Own Comics

Reading Time

The little one will be involved in all the activities and will have a chance to do many of them all by herself. You will notice that as you more though the Journal with your little one she will start the book in a more passive way, watching the big girl, or mommy, do the work.

Over time she will not be able to resist the urge to take over, and do the math, writing, drawing and coloring without as much help. There are many activities she will be able to do well from the beginning. This book will promote bonding, friendship, learning, communication and fun... and isn't that why you homeschool?

Once you and your little girl works through this Journal together, she will be ready to do one of her own.

Look at the Illustration! Little Girls, Teens and Moms will all love these...

(This is similar to the Boyish Journal "My First Fun-Schooling Journal" So if you have a boy, he might like the art in that one better)
