Mergers and Acquisitions of Enterprises: Indian and Global Experiences Rabi Narayan Kar
"The liberalisation process underway in India has significantly contributed to the increase in the merger and acquisition activities in the corporate sector. Following the Government policy of delicensing, dereservation, relaxations under MRTP, liberal FDI inflows and hassle free import of technology, the mergers and acquisitions are being adopted extensively by the India corporates, making for a structural transformation of the industrial sector in the post-liberalisation period. This book examines the current issues and trends associated with mergers and acquisitions of business enterprises in India. "
